Cynthiana considers smoking ban

By BECKY BARNES, Editor
A smoking ban for Cynthiana, that's what is being proposed to the Cynthiana City Commission by members of the Harrison County Healthy Communities Coalition.
Janie Whitehead told commissioners Tuesday that the indoor air pollution is 2.4 times higher in Cynthiana than in Georgetown where a smoking ban has been enacted. Cynthiana's pollution level is also 2.6 times greater than Lexington's.
Whitehead said that as of March 1, 33 Kentucky cities have adopted a smoking ban for public and work places.
In a previous presentation, Whitehead said 11

Kay Brown seeks judgment for half

By BECKY BARNES, Editor
Kay Brown, estranged wife of former Cynthiana mayor and businessman Jim Brown, is seeking a judgment in bankruptcy court that would give her half of her husband's holdings.
The bankruptcy filing puts suits on hold that have been filed against her in Harrison Circuit Court.
Kay Brown filed a Chapter 11 bankruptcy suit in January 2012. That case was moved from a Chapter 11 reorganization to Chapter 7, which turns all of the property over to a trustee and that trustee may sell some or all of the property to settle

Kay Brown

Richard M. Wehrle, conservator, Paul Brown, guardian, and James A. Brown asks for declaratory relief, to turn over property to the estate, avoid-debts.

Also in January, Kay Brown filed an adversary complaint in U.S. Bankruptcy Court for the Eastern District in Pikeville. The suit against ance and recovery of fraudulent transfers, the disallowance of claims and willful violations of the automatic stay.
On April 4, Judge Joseph Scott Jr. agreed to a 60-day extension for the defendants to respond to a 63-page complaint.
The adversary proceeding in essence alleges that Kay Brown was presented the prenuptial agreement just before the Feb. 2, 2008 wedding ceremony. She claims she was not represented or advised by an attorney.
Her assertion is that the agreement is void and unenforceable because she had no opportunity to review the agreement or to be advised by counsel.

However, she states that following her marriage to Jim Brown and his subsequent December 2008 stroke, he filed a new estate plan and will that superseded the original documents that included the prenuptial agreement.
Her allegation is that these new documents should be binding.
Also, since her filing in bankruptcy court, there should have existed an automatic stay of other proceedings.
She asserts that the rents

A Raggedy ending
10th festival will move to Flat Run

By BECKY BARNES, Editor
If you've missed the first nine Raggedy Ann Festivals, this year may be your last chance to see Raggedy Ann and her entourage of family and friends in Cynthiana.
Juanita Ingram, chairman of the festival committee, said she and her team of five other faithfuls are going to turn in their red-yarn wigs after the 10th festival.
"We didn't think we'd do it for five years," Ingram said. "It's had a good run."
She said this year's festival will be even bigger; enough so that they had to find a new location.

Use alternate U.S. 27 S. route, says Chief

By BECKY BARNES, Editor
Cynthiana Police Chief Ray Johnson is asking motorists to use the alternative route of Ladish Road to Safety Way to New Lair Road when possible.
Abdallah/Waterworks Road was closed last week due to the instability of the road and will be closed indefinitely.
Johnson said the road closing has created a hazardous condition for first responders on U.S. 27 South. In the event of an accident or other crisis, police, fire or ambulance cannot get through heavy traffic in a timely manner.

Johnson asked the public to use the cut-through from Ladish Road to New Lair when possible.
"It may be a little longer, but it will definitely be quicker than sitting in traffic," Johnson said.

In other business, the commission:
•Tentatively set the sale date for surplus property on Cook Pike for Saturday, May 5. The sale will be held at the property, which was formerly the city's landfill.

Copper taken from substation on KY 356

By BEN HYATT, News Writer
A copper theft at a Kentucky Utility substation left many homes susceptible to power outages this week.
According to Harrison County Sheriff's Deputy Tuan Kreer, a report was made on Tuesday, April 10, by a Kentucky Utility worker for some missing copper wire located on KY 356.
"I responded to a Kentucky Utility substation located on KY 356 in reference to some stolen copper wire," said Kreer. "When I arrived I met with KU representative Chris Harris, who advised me that someone had gained entry to the substation and removed some copper ground wire."
According to the report, Harris explained that the copper ground wire is put in place to protect the substation from any potential lightning strikes.
Harris explained to Kreer that without the copper ground wire, the substation is vulnerable to lightning, which could cause power outages or even severe damage to the substation.
"The grounds are locked up very well, with 12-foot of chain-link fence surrounding the substation," said Kreer. "However, we believe the person or persons gained entry on the west side of the substation near a tree-line."
Kreer said approximately 40 feet of thick copper wire had been removed from the substation. The estimated cost of replacing the wire was around $1,000.
"KU is looking at several hundreds of dollars to replace the wire," said Kreer. "This is a serious offense and anyone who is ever caught in this kind of act will be charged to the fullest extent."
Kreer also noted the potential danger of someone entering the substation without authority.
"All it takes is getting too close to the wrong thing while you're inside that fence," said Kreer. "We are lucky no one was killed in the theft; but if anyone tries it again, it will be only a matter of time before we have a serious accident on our hands."
According to KU public information officer Cliff Feltham, no power outages have been reported and the situation is under control.
"Everyone is safe and there is no need to worry," said Feltham. "We are more concerned for the safety for anyone who enters the substation. There is a major risk of death for anyone who is not trained to work around the substation and we hope no one takes that chance again."

Heart walk planned in Paris

Bourbon Community Hospital is sponsoring Bourbon County's first Heart Walk on April 21. The walk will begin on the hospital campus at 9:30 a.m. on Clinic Drive and proceed down East Main Street, past the courthouse, down High Street, turning at the YMCA, going up Main Street to the Courthouse, back down Main Street to the YMCA, up one block to Pleasant Street, back to East Main Street and ending on Clinic Drive. The walk will be approximately three miles long.

"We decided to do a 'participation' walk rather than a timed walk, to get lots of folks, including children, involved," stated Diane Wagoner, coordinator of the event for the hospital.

There will be no fee to sign up or walk. There will be a donation jar for anyone wishing to donate to the American Heart Association. Individuals or teams may sign up the day of the walk or in advance by contacting Diane Wagoner at 859/987-1001 or diane.wagoner@lpnt.net. There will be ribbons awarded to all participants and a team trophy will be awarded to the team with the most walkers in each of three categories; business/industry; church/civic groups; and, schools (i.e. Cane Ridge, Paris Elementary, BCMS, St. Mary's, etc.). Registrations the day of the event will begin at 9 a.m.

In addition to the walk, there will be vendors selling goods and games for children to play. A Zumba demonstration will be held from 9-9:20 a.m. and everyone is welcome to join in. These activities will be held in the grassy area between the hospital and Bluegrass Medical Complex on Clinic Drive.

Vendors wanting booth space should contact Diane Wagoner. In lieu of a booth fee, vendors will be asked to donate $25 to the American Heart Association.

For more information on the event contact Diane Wagoner at 987-1001.

Four survival tips for your family vacation

(ARA) - You know the old saying that the journey is just as important as reaching your destination? It can also be applied to your family vacation. While you may already have a getaway destination in mind, traveling as a family presents its share of challenges for the journey ahead.

That's why it's so important to plan ahead to make sure your trip is a memorable voyage, rather than an endless undertaking. Preparing for vacation travel is all about using your resources, staying organized and snacking smartly.

Whether you're traveling by car, plane or train, here are a few travel survival tips to ensure a smooth journey during your next vacation:

•Keep a snack stash. Hunger is the happy traveler's kryptonite, as moods can go south quickly when you're in need of a snack. To learn more about the available options, visit www.snydersofhanover.com.

•Take a clean-up kit. Hand sanitizer, napkins and hand wipes can help keep everyone - and the inside of your car - clean during your trip. If you have younger children, keeping a bag with a change of clothes easily accessible can help you weather any bad spills or accidents.

•Don't forget the fun. Car games can make the time fly by for children. If you're driving, games like car bingo and the license plate game are fun ways to help your child discover the scenery. To combine food and fun, use pretzel bits as bingo pieces or a tasty game of tic-tac-toe. Bringing pads for doodling is never a bad idea either, and washable markers are always a good option since they won't easily break like crayons or colored pencils might.

•Make it easy to get some shut-eye. If you have a longer trip planned, bringing smaller travel pillows and blankets to help your passengers rest when they get sleepy can help keep everyone happy.

•Keep travel-friendly technology handy. Smartphones and tablets make great travel companions for adults, giving you access to helpful maps, restaurant reviews and tourism sites. You can also scan the Web for travel-related games for the kids. Follow Snyder's of Hanover on Facebook and Twitter for road trip snacking tips, and look for game ideas and travel tips on the brand's Pinterest board.

Raggedy

“We ran out of room,” Ingram said of the former location at the old courthouse.

This year’s festival will be held at Flat Run Veterans’ Park on April 21, from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

She anticipates 30 vendors this year, including the return of Raggedy Land from Macon, Ga.

Each exhibitor that sells Raggedy Ann or Andy merchandise must be licensed through Simon & Schuster Inc., Ingram said. Only officially licensed merchandise will be sold at the festival.

However, in addition to the Raggedy Ann paraphernalia, there will also be 15 to 20 craft and speciality vendors and at least seven food vendors.

There will be festival T-shirts for sale along with raffle tickets for a Joni Gruelle Wannamaker watercolor created especially for the 10th annual Raggedy Ann Festival.

Visitors who have become accustomed to the camel, pony and train rides won’t be disappointed this year.

They will be returning for children’s enjoyment. There will also be a petting zoo and the Human Society of Harrison County will be there with some pets for adoption.

There will be activities all day for festival goers.

The Blue Collar Rebels will be on stage at 10 a.m. following the welcome and opening remarks from Mayor Steve Moses and Judge Alex Barnett and again at 3 p.m.

At 10:30 a.m., the Philpot family will provide a gospel music concert.

School students were sent home with a coloring contest. Those entries should be turned in at the festival at 11 a.m. The winners will be announced at 1 p.m.

There will be a Raggedy Ann and Andy parade at noon and at 1:30 p.m., Ann’s School of Dance and the Harrison County High School Dance Team will appear on stage.

Members of the festival committee are: Ingram, Linda Moore, John Hicks, Marilyn Bell, Paula Taylor and Sue Neal.

Ten years ago, when the festival was being planned, Cynthiana was dubbed “The Cradle of Raggedy Ann.”

Raggedy Ann creator Johnny Gruelle’s father, R.B. Gruelle, was born in Cynthiana. He eventually grew up and moved away from Harrison County. Johnny became a popular political cartoonist, illustrator and artist.

Gruelle created the Raggedy Ann doll in 1915 and published the first stories in 1918.

According to Ingram’s brochure, when Johnny’s daughter Marcella became ill and was bed-ridden, Johnny spent many hours telling stories to entertain her. She died at 13 years old, but the stories that were based on her dolls became the source for Johnny’s illustrations and children’s books.

“There are several accounts regarding the origin of the first Raggedy Ann doll. Most believe the first [doll] was an old handmade rag doll made in Illinois many years before for Johnny Gruelle’s mother.

“The doll was found years later in the attic and, after some repairs, it became a new playmate for Marcella.”

Johnny’s granddaughter, Joni Gruelle Wannamaker and her husband Tom are curators for the Raggedy Ann and Andy Museum in Arcola, Ill.

ART WINNERS. Harrison County High School art students who participated in the Morehead Regional Art Competition on March 17 are: kneeling, Nickolas Slucher, who received a honorable mention in drawing; Ramon Morales, who earned a third place in video/film making; standing, Katelyn Armstrong, second in ceramics, and Hayley Fryman, first in fibro arts. Fryman and her art will advance to the state competition which will be held at Dixie Heights High School on Sunday, April 22.

Brown

for Brown’s businesses (about $1.6 million over two years), $7.7 million in certificates of deposits and the CD proceeds are property of Kay Brown’s estate and that refusal to turn those over is a violation.

She asserts that because she was not given access to her one-half interest in the rents and CDs, she was insolvent.

She further states that she is entitled to damages to include actual damages, punitive damages, costs and attorneys’ fees and expenses.

She has asked the court to enter a judgment against the three defendants and to award her damages.

Smoking

indoor public places were tested for air quality. Of those 11, six were already smoke-free and five still allowed smoking on the premises.

She said the study showed that workers and patrons in places that allowed smoking were exposed to harmful levels of second-hand smoke.

“We’re not saying you can’t smoke,” Whitehead said. “We’re saying do not smoke where others are going to breathe the same air.”

She told commissioners she has model ordinances from other communities, with Madison County being the most inclusive.

In Harrison County, the school campuses are already tobacco-free, Whitehead said. Also, the recreation department has adopted a tobacco-free environment.

“The next step is to see our town go smoke-free,” Whitehead said.

Sheila Currans, CEO of Harrison Memorial

Hospital, said HMMH has been smoke-free since 2008.

“You have to be committed if it’s going to be successful,” Currans said of enforcing a smoking ban. “It’s a constant battle.”

Dr. Stephen Moses said that as a physician he would support any ordinance that would prohibit smoking in public places.

No action was taken by the commission.

Countdown of the greatest superheroes

Most of the time I have to think before I am able to write my column for the week.

However, on Monday morning, which started out as one of the worst in a long time, I simply had an idea slam into my head.

I love looking on the internet to see top 10's of different categories.

Whether it is top 10 movies, athletes, college sports or dumb quotes of all time, I like to research those.

The lists of top 10's go on forever.

This week I would like to take a trip back to my childhood and my top 10 list of a certain area which I and most young boys love to talk about... superheros.

That's right, superheros. They were in comic books, daytime telovision and some were great enough to make it into the movies.

Since students are off this week for spring break, I thought it may provide some interesting reading for them and I encourage anyone to submit their top 10 list via letter to the editor.

My top 10 list looks like this:

At No. 10 we have none other than the environment friendly Captain Planet.

He is super strong, super fast; he can fly and can manipulate the weather, which tends to make me wonder if he is real or not considering the weather lately.

Captain Planet started his television debut around the early 90's and ran until May of 1996.

Captain Planet and the Planetegers put an end to the destruction of the earth each week as they fought against their rivals such as Dr. Blight, Verminous Skumm, Duke Nukem, Hoggish Greedly, Zarm, Looten Plunder, and Sly Sludge.

Ben Hyatt
News Writer

Captain Planet will forever be one of the elite in any conversation involving true superheroes of the past.

Coming in at No. 9 is the Green Lantern.

This hero dates back to the All-American Comics in 1940.

He has almost everything a superhero could want including the ability to fly, teleport, hypnosis, green energy field, light beams and he could translate all languages.

Now the Green Lantern is somewhat of a harder hero to follow because it is not just one hero.

A ring is entrusted to a person giving them the ability to join an elite squad of law and order enforcing superheroes.

In 2011, Ryan Reynolds starred in a remake of the masked green hero that so many comic book readers came to love.

The movie may not have been as big a hit as expected, but nonetheless, the Green Lantern still makes the top 10 with no dispute.

Coming in at No. 8 is Wonder Woman.

Any guy who liked superheroes must have had a crush on her at one point or another.

She had speed, agility, could fly, and had great hand-to-hand combat skills.

Although no one to this point, as I know it, has made a movie about this superhero, I would think that Ann Hathaway would do an amazing job of portraying the very nicely built woman of steel.

At No. 7 is He-Man.

There could be some debate as to if he is really a superhero or not, but the simple fact that he had amazing strength and could slash through his opponents with his indestructible sword puts him in the top 10.

At No. 6 is a character who brought joy to the soldiers fighting in the trenches during World War II, Captain America.

Steve Rodgers, the alter ego to Captain America, was given a special serum which in return gave him enormous fetes of strength and agility when facing the Axis powers of World War II. Not to mention the cool shield that he had could be thrown at enemies.

Although the character faded after the war, he was popular enough to make his own movie in 2011. He is a true American icon to all war time comic book readers.

No. 5 is The Flash.

Who is the Flash?

Several men have assumed the role of the comic book hero actually.

His lightning speed has made him a physics nightmare.

He basically defies every conclusion developed by Albert Einstein as he races around the world fighting criminals such as Captain Boomerang, Mirror Master, Trickster and Captain Cold.

Face it, anyone who beats Superman in a foot-race is cool.

At No. 4 is a green monster of a man named The Hulk.

He has the ability to heal himself, has super strength and can breathe under water.

After Dr. Bruce Banner, alter ego to the Hulk, exposes himself to a bomb blast, he transforms into a green muscle-bulging fighting machine.

Perhaps the Hulk is best known by the physical image of Lou Ferrigno, who played the Hulk in the television series. Big guy.

Dropping into the top three is Spider-Man.

What high school guy would not want to be Peter Parker, the guy who is bitten by a spider and transformed into a crime-fighting phenomenon.

Whether he was fighting the Sandman, Electro or the Green Goblin; Spiderman did it with style.

Just falling short of No. 1 is Superman.

“Faster than a speeding bullet, more powerful than a locomotive, able to leap tall buildings in a single bound.”

As a reporter you have to appreciate Clark Kent.

He was picked on by so many, but kept his cool at all times.

There have been so many knock-offs from the original Super-Man comics, but most notably would have to be when Christopher Reeves took on the role.

Admit it, at some point all men have wanted to take the role of the red cape-wearing superhero... minus the blue tights of course.

Topping the chart at No. 1, of course would have to be Batman.

Not only does he smash crime in the face, he is also a billionaire.

I myself would love to drive a Rolls Royce by day and a kick-butt, modified tank at night.

Whether you were out on a date with celebrities or back at the cave with your butler who designed cool gadgets for you to use, being Batman would be awesome.

It cannot be disputed, in my mind, that Batman will forever be No. 1 when the topic of superheroes is in discussion.

As I said, I encourage any young superhero fan to send their list of top 10 superheroes into the Democrat.

The address is 302 Webster Ave.

Equal pay for women

To the editor:

On Tuesday, April 17, thousands of women from across the United States will join in a national day of action against unfair pay called Equal Pay Day. April is symbolic of the point into the new year that a woman must work in order to earn the wages paid to a man in the previous year. On a national level, women are paid only 78 cents for every dollar a man is paid, according to the U.S. Census Bureau. So, because women earn less, we must work longer for the same pay.

At a time when American's economy is facing a downturn, every penny counts. Economist Evelyn Murphy, president and founder of The WAGE Project, estimates that the wage gap costs the average American full-time woman worker between $700,000 and $2 million over the course of her lifetime.

Fair pay takes real change. And we can make a difference. Here in Cynthiana/Berry/Harrison County, Kentucky, Licking Valley Business and Professional Women will join hundreds of other organizations across the nation to educate women and men about pay inequity and to offer solutions to wage discrimination. We acknowledge Tuesday, April 17 as Equal Pay Day. We encourage the business community to review their pay practices to ensure that women are not discriminated against.

TEA Party Tax Rally is Saturday

To the editor:

As Tax Day looms (April 16) we are once again reminded that the burden of tax weighs heavily on the individuals that PAY tax.

I, and fellow members of the local T.E.A. Party, have been closely following events in Washington. There is a clear disconnect between our politicians and reality. Our government has been spending, in ever increasing numbers, money which it does not have.

Legislative session's final day set aside for considering vetoes

On Thursday this week, the General Assembly returns for the legislative session's final day, which is traditionally set aside for considering any vetoes the governor may issue.

This year, however, there will also be other work done during that time, which is expected to include passing the state's road plan, approving a major initiative designed to crack down on prescription drug abuse and giving the go-ahead to an innovative proposal that will use coal-severance dollars to boost the number of four-year college degrees in coal-producing counties.

Each of those would be sizeable accomplishments, and would compliment many other noteworthy bills that are now either law or should soon be.

For our region, that includes a plan to give a much-needed tax break to those areas hardest hit by storms in late February and on March 2. Those with damaged property will now be able to get a rebate on their sales tax for building materials, as long as they are rebuilding in the same county where the damage occurred.

In addition, this law will ensure that schools forced to close because of these storms will not lose any state funding as a result. Teachers and staff alike will also not be adversely affected financially.

Tom McKee

One of the bills about to become law that I was proud to sponsor will set the stage for a permanent memorial for those brave Kentucky soldiers who died while fighting in Iraq and Afghanistan. There have been more than 110, which includes the six who perished during Operation Desert Storm in the early 1990s.

A new committee will look later this year for the best locations for this memorial and will oversee design and fund raising as well. As we reduce our presence in these two countries, we in the General Assembly feel now is the best time to honor those who gave the ultimate sacrifice, rather than waiting.

There are several other bills passing the House and Senate this year that will benefit veterans or those still serving.

One new law, for example, will include a veterans designation on driver's licenses, so that those who qualify can quickly prove it without carrying other papers. Another will provide adoption-assistance funding for those in the National Guard.

The budget gives authorization for the state's fourth nursing home for veterans, if the federal government approves, and there will be further steps to establish Kentucky's fifth veterans cemetery, which will be located in southeastern Kentucky.

In matters of public safety, the General Assembly has passed two new laws that tackle synthetic drugs and meth.

Under the first, we broadened the definition for these drugs, so that it will be much tougher to evade the law by changing the drug's formula slightly.

There will also be much stiffer penalties for establishments that choose to sell these poisons, which are sometimes known as 'bath salts' because they are intentionally mislabeled.

To reduce the amount of meth being produced in Kentucky, the General Assembly has set some reasonable limits on the purchase of pseudoephedrine, which can be found in such products as Sudafed. The goal is to make sure those who truly need this still have access while hopefully limiting those who only want the medicine because it is meth's key ingredient.

Under this new plan, the limit for purchase without a prescription is 7.2 grams of pseudoephedrine a month and 24 grams a year. A standard box with 48 pills – each having a 30 milligram dosage – amounts to 1.44 grams; that means someone could buy five boxes of tablets a month without a prescription.

It is very important to point out this law does not apply to gel tabs or liquid form of the medicine, both of which are very difficult to use to manufacture meth.

In addition to this change, those convicted of meth-related crimes will not be allowed to purchase the cold medicine for up to five years.

Some of the other bills that have been sent to Gov. Beshear will do such things as give Toyota, GM and several large auto parts company access to the same type of tax incentives given to Ford in 2007, if they make at least a $100 million investment.

Another will ensure that businesses will not lose a federal tax credit worth up to $600 million.

This could have happened if the General Assembly did not pass a plan to pay off the interest on the sizeable federal loan the unemployment insurance fund had to obtain to maintain benefits.

For farmers, one of the bills poised to become law this year is the "Farms for Food Banks" provision on your state income tax, so you can contribute part of your refund if you'd like.

I want to thank those who have contacted me this legislative session, and encourage you to continue letting me know your views throughout the year.

If you would like to write, my address is Room 332B, Capitol Annex, 702 Capitol Avenue, Frankfort, KY 40601.

You can also leave a message for me or for any legislator at 800-372-7181. For those with a hearing impairment, the number is 800-896-0305.

BEAVER CREEK RESTORATION

Members of Toyota's Contributions Committee present a $10,000 donation to the Ohio River Foundation for restoration of the Beaver creek. Almost 50 students from Harrison County High School are participating in the project.

TMMK $10k grant allows HCHS students help restore Beaver Creek

A donation from Toyota Motor Manufacturing, Kentucky, Inc. was presented to the Ohio River Foundation for student education and participation in a creek restoration project.

The Ohio River Foundation was awarded a $10,000 grant from TMMK to have Harrison County High School students participate in restoring Beaver Creek. "It was a great day for the students," said County Judge-Executive Alex Barnett. "The students identified 13 species of fish in the creek and conducted several different trials to show the quality of water in Beaver Creek."

Apple Lane in Harrison County crosses Beaver Creek, a tributary to the Licking River. The road floods during high water, creating a transportation hazard.

County officials are partnering with Ohio River Foundation to remove the road and install a bridge, which will improve transportation safety and restore natural flow to the creek, according to a press release from TMMK.

The Ohio River Foundation is a non-profit organization serving the Greater Cincinnati area and the 200,000 square mile watershed with educational and conservation programs.

The foundation was formed in 2000 and assists communities along the river and throughout the watershed.

The Ohio River Foundation works in protecting the quality of life and to improve the public's awareness of the importance of protecting and improving the natural environment in the Ohio River watershed.

"We have developed a workable model that enables us to help communities achieve the social, environmental, and economic benefits of river protection and restoration. We applaud Harrison County for having the vision and ambition that this project requires and hope that other communities will follow its lead," said Rich Cogen, executive director of Ohio River Foundation.

Cogen stated that without the support of TMMK the unique hands-on, real-world learning situation for students would not be possible.

Recreation, senior citizens' needs unresolved, county budget workshop on hold

By BEN HYATT, NEWS WRITER

The Harrison County Fiscal Court will forgo its next scheduled budget workshop due to unsure group budgets.

Tuesday, April 17, was set aside by the Harrison County Fiscal Court in order to put the first polishing touches on 2012-13's budget.

However, because two remaining groups who are requesting funds from the county are not certain of their needs, the fiscal court has decided that the meeting would serve no purpose.

"Until we are sure about the future of the Harrison County Recreation Department, I see no need for us to meet and discuss their budget request," said County Judge-Executive Alex Barnett. "I don't want us putting time into something until they have a chance to complete their changes."

In 2011-12 the county contributed $55,080 into the recreation department budget.

Along with the recreation department, the Commission on Aging request of $25,000 has also been halted due to financial complications in their budget.

"The Senior Citizens Center is in need of some major work," said Barnett. "They are starting to get things lined out with repairing some of the flood damage that they sustained but, they still have some unanswered issues about their finances."

Barnett, along with the entire fiscal court, agreed that the senior citizens of the community will be taken care of.

However, changes may be needed in programs to ensure the stability of the offered services.

Barnett informed the court that the contract between Brown EMS has been submitted and is ready for approval.

"They met our requests for a quarterly budget and to build a structure for housing the ambulances," said Barnett. "If it pleases the court I will go ahead and sign the three-year contract with Brown EMS and we can put to rest the ambulance issue."

The court agreed for Barnett to sign the contract, which puts Brown's EMS as the ambulance service for three years.

Cynthiana auctioneer Shawn Ritchey has agreed to auction the property at no cost to the city. However, commissioners agreed to pay for advertising the sale.

•Approved a $2,500 stipend to Planning and Zoning for its mapping project.

•Heard a presentation by Jerry Adams regarding an Aug. 25 "Rod Rally" in Cynthiana. He asked the city to help with a $500 donation.

Commissioners agreed to consider the request at its upcoming budget sessions.

•Heard Commissioner Billy Grayson report that new lights have been installed on U.S. 27 South.

•Heard code enforcement officer Wayland Quisenberry report that building repairs at 209 E. Pike St. are set to begin next week. He said the repairs were delayed due to the death in the property owner's family.

•Heard Quisenberry report that he has received numerous complaints regarding dogs. He said the calls have ranged from bad odors to noise to frightening children.

•Heard Commissioner Roger Slade report that ACR surveyors would be going through Cynthiana and will possibly be in residents back yards conducting their surveys.

•Voted unanimously to pursue an internship program for waste water treatment and water treatment operators.

Commissioner Jack Keith said the highly skilled operators are under huge demand. He suggested getting young people involved early will set them up to be able to return to their hometown for well-paying positions.

He said the school requirements could be four years. The internship would allow the students to borrow the money for school then begin a payment program after graduation while working for the city.

"We can have rough streets, but we can't go without water," Keith said.

•Heard Mayor Steve Moses report that all properties for the Westside Redevelopment Project have been purchased.

He said anyone interested in applying for a low-interest loan for the properties should contact Community Action or City Hall.

Next Kentucky Life celebrates Earth Day

The next edition of Kentucky Life celebrates Earth Day across the state. Host Dave Shuffett helps net and band songbirds in Red River Gorge, explores up close the modern trend of urban beekeeping in Louisville, pitches in to help out across the state during Commonwealth Cleanup, and more. The program airs Saturday, April 21 at 8/7 p.m. CT and Sunday, April 22 at 3:30/2:30 p.m. CT on KET.

Kentucky Life's first segment explores the state's remarkable songbird biodiversity. Although songbirds may seem familiar to many, there is a lot that naturalists still don't know about them. The forest canopy in Powell County is a resting point for migratory songbirds, and that's where Shuffett joins a group that is catching and banding birds to learn more about their journeys.

Next, the program explores the latest craze in Louisville's urban neighborhoods: beekeeping. With an increased interest in locally grown food, backyard bee hives have sprung up in cities across the country.

Kentucky Life played a big part in the state's 14th annual Commonwealth Cleanup, a weeklong series of events in March managed by the Kentucky Department for Environmental Protection's Division of Waste Management. .

This program's Downton Destination is Newport. Shuffett visits the Newport Aquarium and Mighty Mike, the 14-foot American alligator.

Kentucky Life is a KET production.

The day God called you home, God looked around His garden and found an empty place. He then looked down upon His earth and saw your loving face. He saw your path was difficult and closed your weary eyes. He whispered to you "Peace be thine" and gave you wings to fly. It broke my heart to lose you, but you did not go alone. For part of me went with you on the day God called you home.

I love and miss you dearly.

 From the works of Johnny Gruelle --* "And, when one is considerate of the happiness of others, he always creates happiness and sunshine in his own mind and heart."

 R. B. (Richard Buckner) Gruelle* was born in 1851 in Cynthiana, Ky. He was a self-taught landscape and portrait artist, musician and writer. His family moved to Illinois where in Decatur he married Alice J. Benton.

 R. B. and Alice* became the parents of Johnny (John Barton) Gruelle who was born in Arcola, Ill. on Christmas Eve, 1880.

 It was Johnny Gruelle*, a political cartoonist and artist, who created the Raggedy Ann doll in 1915 and published the first Raggedy stories in 1918. Although Johnny died in 1938, the worldwide love for his Raggedy dolls and stories continues today.

 In 2002, Joni Gruelle Wannamaker*, daughter of Worth Gruelle, granddaughter of Johnny Gruelle, and great-granddaughter of R. B. Gruelle, visited Cynthiana on her genealogical quest.

 Her hosts at the Seldon Renaker Inn*, Juanita and Jim Ingram, suggested that she visit the Cynthiana-Harrison County Museum. There, Joni gathered information from Harold Slade about the Gruelle family. She collected additional data in the genealogical records at the Cynthiana Public Library.

 Joni was charmed* with the people she met, the welcome and assistance she received, and this special community (the birthplace of her great-grandfather). Thus, the idea of a festival to honor the Gruelle memory and to promote the Raggedy tradition came to fruition.

 The Tenth Raggedy Ann (and Andy, too) Festival* will be held on Saturday, April 21. Everyone, the young and the young at heart, the Anns and the Andys, are encouraged to be a part of the festivities.

Sermon: The Garden Experience
Scripture: John 18:1-11
Date: Sunday, April 16, 2012, 11:00am
Place: Saint James AME Church
312 West Pleasant Street, Cynthiana
Preacher: Reverend Antonio Q. Stuckey

To All People:

I am in a state of awe. More people are in attendance of Saint James AMEC than in the past seven years. God is doing something amazing. Hallelujah! Praise the Lord!

On Sunday, April 15, 2012 at 11:00am, I will be preaching from the subject, The Garden Experience. Gardens can be beautiful places to behold, but also filled with hidden dangers. How should we deal with dangers in beautiful places? How should we deal with betrayal? How can we surrender to the will of God when it hurts? What did God mean when he told Paul, "...My grace is sufficient for thee...?"

Jesus told his disciples to be as wise as serpents, but as harmless as doves. Come to Saint James AMEC and learn the meaning to this adage (wise saying).

Come and experience the preached Word of God. You will be blessed. No special dress required-blue jeans and plain t-shirts are acceptable.

Everyone (this means all races) is welcome. Please make every effort to attend this worship service.

Sincerely,
Reverend Antonio Q. Stuckey

The Mission of Saint James AME Church

The mission of Saint James African Methodist Episcopal Church is to minister to the spiritual, intellectual, physical, emotional, and environmental needs of all people by spreading Christ liberating gospel through word and deed.

Breds open Hanahan Tournament with 3-2 win, lose on Tuesday

By Mike Aldridge, Sports Writer

The Harrison County Thorobreds took advantage of a solid pitching performance by junior Jordan Martin and four extra base hits to defeat Chardon, Ohio, 3-2, in the Hanahan Invitational in South Carolina.

Martin went the seven-inning distance allowing seven hits while striking out six and walking two.

Harrison County scored two runs in the top of the first on a single by Xavier Carter, a sacrifice and back-to-back doubles by Brandon Kendall and John King.

Chardon returned the favor with two of its own in the bottom of the inning when, with one out, Hawkins walked and scored on Martillotte's home run.

The game then became a pitcher's dual as each team failed to score until the top of the fourth.

In the fourth, the Thorobreds again were benefactors of back-to-back doubles, this time by King and Hunter Hill. This run gave the Breds the lead 3-2, which held up for the game.

Chardon threatened in the bottom of the sixth when Martillotte singled and advanced to second with one out on a Kirsh single.

Martin then struck out Lawrence and induced Furlich to fly to right to end the threat.

That was the last threat of the game and the Thorobreds began the tournament with a win to make the season record 9-2.

John King led the hitting for the Breds with a double and a triple in three at bats. Hill and Kendall each had RBI doubles.

The Harrison County junior varsity dropped two close games as the week started in South Carolina.

Zach Royse was the hitting leader in the 6-5 loss to Chardon with a double and Robbie Stroub had a hit, a walk, was hit by a pitch and scored a run in the 10-8 loss

Fillies split four games in Tennessee Tournament

By Mike Aldridge, Sports Writer

"It was a good experience for the girls to play in a tournament atmosphere and hopefully they learned from it," remarked Fillies head softball coach Christine Garnett following the last of four games in Clarksville, Tenn., over the weekend. "I saw some fight in our girls. We were down early in a couple of games and they fought back each time."

The Fillies started the tournament facing West Creek, Tenn.

Eighth grader Jami Davis started and pitched the entire game for the Fillies giving up six hits and two unearned runs in the Fillies 9-2 victory. West Creek scored both of its runs in the top of the first when they got a lead-off single and were gifted with two passed balls and two Harrison County errors.

The Fillies came back with three in the bottom of the inning on a Morgan Grose bunt single, a walk to Ashley Coppage and two straight base hits by Tracey Hicks and Kecia Stephens.

Davis allowed two more hits in the top of the second but no runs and her teammates blew the game wide open in the bottom of the inning.

Harrison County batted around in the second started by a lead-off walk to senior Emalee Little.

Morgan Florence bunted for a hit followed by a Grose strike out. Coppage and Hicks each singled in a run, Stephens was hit by a pitch followed by a walk to Lucinda Boyers that also forced in a run.

The fourth run of the inning scored on a force out by Davis and Sydney Motel singled in the fifth run of the inning before Little flied deep to center to close out the second.

Davis then set the West Creek squad down for the remainder of the five inning game and also drove in the ninth run for Harrison County with a fourth inning double for the final 9-2 score.

Tracey Hicks pitched the second game of the tournament as the Fillies faced Clay County, Tenn., on Friday night. Hicks pitched the four-inning game striking out six, walking two, allowing four hits and four runs, only one which was earned.

The Fillies picked up two quick runs on four hits in the first inning as Florence, Grose, Coppage and Boyers all singled.

Hicks struck out five of the first nine outs as she breezed through the Clay County line up until the top of the fourth. Clay County struck for all four of its hits and runs in this inning aided by a walk and a Harrison County error.

Clay County took a 4-2 lead into the bottom of the fourth when the Fillies unleashed a seven-hit, sev-

Harrison County track team wins at home Thursday, runs well at Rowan

By Mike Aldridge, Sports Writer

The Harrison County track team, both the Fillies and Thorobreds, continued to perform well in two meets last week.

The first home meet of the season on Thursday was a seven-team meet for the girls and a six-team contest for the boys. Each of the Harrison County teams finished first by large margins in the contest held at the Athletic Complex.

The Fillies had 10 first place finishes, four in the relays, as they scored 165 points to 92 for the second place squad from Madison Southern.

Many different athletes contributed to the victory led by senior Natasha Ingram who swept the shot put and the discus.

Other first place winners were sophomore Taylor Fry, who won both the 1600M run and the 800M run, freshman Hannah Thomas, who won the 400M dash, and freshman Sabreena Strickland, who was first in the 100M dash.

The Fillies swept the relays winning the 400M relay (Jessica Alas, Cindy Rognstad, Mia Lail and Strickland), the 800M relay (Kinsey Lesak, Haley Carr, Strickland, and Lail), the 1600M relay (Thomas, Carr, Lesak and Fry) and the 3200M relay (Thomas, Bailey Caudill, Morgan Puckett, and Katelyn Horschler).

In addition to the first place finishes the Fillies also had four seconds and six third place finishes.

Carr was second in both the 100M hurdles and the 300M hurdles, Strickland was second in the 200M dash and Beth McKinney was second in the discus.

The Thorobreds ran away by a 217 to 103 margin over the nearest competitor, George Rogers Clark, to easily take the win.

The Breds also had 10 first place finishes as well as nine seconds and seven third place finishes. Harrison County finished either first or second in all of the field events.

Taylor Bolin won the pole vault, Elijah Gross won the triple jump and Mike Jones took the shot put.

Archers fifth in middle school state, sixth in high school

A year that was thought to be a rebuilding one for the Harrison County Middle School archery team appears instead to be a reloading year.

Several talented eighth grade archers moved on to the high school last May, but those remaining took up where they left off by finishing fifth out of 49 teams in the state tournament.

The middle school team had a balanced attack with all involved shooting for good scores. So good in fact, that the squad was only 18 points from second.

Seventh grade archer Dalton Moore led the middle school in points as he finished seventh with 282.

The high school team finished sixth out of 42 competing schools.

The top three of the four top individual scores were produced by freshmen. The youth movement was even more obvious as the fourth top score was from a sophomore.

Freshman Kyle Yearsley shot for the highest individual score tallied by a Harrison County student since senior Keith Northcutt won the state title in 2010. Yearsley finished fourth overall after leading for a great portion of the day with a score of 295. Yearsley's sister, Macy, also showed great promise as she finished fourth in the girls' fourth grade state results. Macy shot a score of 257 for the competition.

The archery team's next competition is the national tournament held on May 11 and 12. This event will also be held in Louisville.

HCMS Colts track squad finishes third in first meet

The Harrison County Middle School Colts finished third in the Harrison County All Comers on Wednesday, March 21, at the Athletic Complex.

The Colts, coached by Kim Jenkins and Alicia Glenn, have several competitors who are experiencing track and field for the first time.

Mason County Middle won the weather-

Joy in others misery

There are many ways for people to find joy in this world. Wildcat fans are ecstatic with the eighth national championship and well they should be.

In fact, according to a writer for the Herald Leader, they are now destined to surpass the University of California at Los Angeles in total NCAA championships.

A fan should be happy when his or her team wins it all. A good play by someone in a game would be cause for happiness especially if that someone was a child or grandchild. Even if it is just someone's child, a young person making a good play is often cause for celebration.

There are a couple of instances where joy, elation or happiness should not be exhibited. These incidents should not even be causes for a "good feeling" at all,

Mike Aldridge
Sports Writer

but certainly not a public show or discussion of happiness.

One of these times is when an official is knocked down or injured in some way while in the throws of duty.

I have been going to ball games of all kinds since I was a young boy, which believe me, is a long time.

During that time I have seen officials in baseball, basketball and football become injured during the game in various ways.

I saw a football umpire suffer a broken leg in a game at Indiana University one time, which was very unpleasant to see, especially considering that was the position that I was working at the time in high school.

Breds trump Royals 15-3 in five Thursday on the Hilltop

The Harrison County Thoroughbreds improved their record to 8-2 Thursday night as they ripped Mason County 15-3 in five innings.

Played on the Hilltop, the game was never close as the Breds scored four times in the first inning and steadily pulled away. Junior Brandon Kendall started the game on the mound and pitched the first three innings without giving up a hit. He struck out three and did not walk anyone.

Harrison County led by 11 runs after three innings as the Breds garnered 11 hits while Mason County committed three errors.

Mason County scored all three of its runs in the forth inning on one hit and four Harrison County errors. John King, Jordan Riley and Nolan Brossart each retired one batter in this inning while walking one, throwing a wild pitch and giving up the one hit.

The Thoroughbreds tallied four runs in the bottom of the fourth to retain the big lead and actually add one run to the margin.

Freshman Austin Reffett pitched the fifth for Harrison County walking one and striking out one to wrap up the victory for the Thoroughbreds.

Jordan Martin had a big day at the plate going four for four. Martin had two doubles, four RBI's and scored one run to lead Harrison County. Paul Jones, Justin Nutter and Noah Mitchell also hit for doubles for the Breds.

Harrison County travels to South Carolina for their next games beginning Monday when they face Chardon, Ohio. The defeat on Thursday left Mason County with a 3-6-1 record for the season.

to James Island.

Tuesday night the Thoroughbreds were unable to hit the pitcher from Wando High School from Wando, S.C.

The Breds managed five singles for the game but recorded 14 strikeouts.

Martin had two singles to lead the Breds. Wando scored twice in the second, once in the fourth, twice in the fifth and put the game away in the sixth with six runs on only two hits.

Harrison County pitching walked seven batters in the sixth inning to help Wando's cause.

The game ended in the bottom of the sixth with an 11-0 win for Wando. The loss dropped Harrison County's record to 9-3 for the year.

en-run inning highlighted by two bunt singles and Coppage's double.

Twelve batters came to the plate in this deciding inning of the game. The Fillies' 9-4 victory gives them a 5-1-1 record for the season.

Saturday's first opponent was St. Joseph's Catholic High School from Wisconsin.

Hicks again started giving up two runs, one earned in 2 2/3 innings.

The St. Joseph team won the game 7-6, but scored only two earned runs off Hicks, Davis and Stephens.

The three hurlers combined for five strikeouts and three walks.

The Fillies started the scoring in the second when Stephens doubled and scored on Boyers' single. St. Joseph's tied the game in the bottom of the second on a walk and two singles and then took the lead in the third.

In the top of the third, Coppage singled with two out and was stranded.

The home team then scored three on two hits, a walk and two Harrison County errors. St. Joseph made the score 6-1 in the fourth with three more hits, another walk and one more error.

The Fillies fought back to tie the game in the top of the fifth when Coppage hit a grand slam home run which was followed by a solo shot by Hicks that knotted the score at six runs each.

St. Joseph's came back and scored a single unearned run in the bottom of the fifth for the 7-6 win.

The final game of the tournament was another tough one-run loss for the Fillies. This time the opponent was Montgomery County of Tennessee.

The Fillies fell behind in this contest in the bottom of the second when Montgomery County utilized a single, a walk, a hit bats man and another single to plate three runs.

The Fillies came back in the top of the third to score three times and tie the game. A walk to Florence and a single by Grose brought up Coppage who singled Florence home.

Grose scored on a sacrifice fly to center by Hicks and Coppage came in on Stephens' single. Boyers and Davis both got on to load the bases with one out but the runners were left on the bases.

Montgomery County scored twice in the third on an error and a two-run homer to regain the lead.

Again, the Fillies battled back in the top of the fourth when Little bunted her way on and advanced to third on singles by Florence and Grose.

The senior center fielder then scored on a fly to center by Coppage that was misplayed leaving the bases loaded with nobody out.

Hicks lined to first for the first out followed by a Stephens single which scored Florence. Grose scored on an error by the shortstop and Stephens came around on two passed balls to make the score 7-5 going into the bottom of the last inning.

A walk, a double and two singles scored three runs for Montgomery County giving them the 8-7 victory and dropping the Fillies record to 5-3-1.

The Fillies play Todd County Central (3-13) on Monday night and then return to the area to visit Paris (3-6-1) on Friday, Pendleton County (0-8) on Monday and host Dunbar (2-6) on Tuesday.

Track

Jones was second in the discus with Dominic Walker third. Mason Ritchie was second in the high jump with Gross third; and Jason Pratt was second in the long jump with Todd Puckett third.

Daniel Klapheke was first in the 110M hurdles and second in both the 100M dash and the 300M hurdles to play a big role in the victory. Tyler Martin won the 800M run and Grant Carr took the 3200M run to complete the individual winners for the Breds.

Harrison County also took first place in all four relays and was actually first and second in the 3200M relay race. The 400M relay runners were Scott Kendall, Joe Korona, Jeffrey Hunter and DeShon Talbott. Talbott, Derick Hurst, Brandon Clarke and Campbell Hall ran the 800M relay. The 1600M relay runners were Nick Slucher, Jacob Marsh, Hall and Clarke and the 3200M relay runners were Joe Thomas, Carr, Slucher and Joey Faulconer.

The Rowan County Invitational on Saturday saw Mason County win both the boys and girls titles.

The Royals edged the Thorobreds by 143 to 132 in the eight-team meet. The relays were again a strong suit for the Breds as well as the field events.

Harrison County won two and finished second in the other two relays while taking two firsts, two seconds, a third and a sixth in the field events.

Klapheke won the 110M hurdles for the only individual running win for the Thorobreds.

Hall was second in the 100M dash, Clarke was second in the 400M dash and Faulconer finished second in the 1600M run. Walker won the discus and took second in the shot put while fellow sophomore Bolin was second in the pole vault. Junior Gross won the triple jump.

The Fillies, like the Thorobreds, were missing some athletes for the Rowan County meet due to spring break travel.

They finished third to Mason County and Bath County while setting some personal and season bests along the way.

Freshman Hannah Thomas blazed the trail in the 400M in 1:03.57 to win while Carr had a season best in both winning the 100M hurdles and taking third in the 300M hurdles.

The relays were again a source of many of the Fillies points as they won the 1600M relay in the fastest time run in years 4:26.71 while finishing second in the 400M relay and the 3200M relay. They also were third in the 800M relay. Fry nearly surpassed her personal best time in the 1600M run finishing second in 5:51.83.

Both Coaches Danny Simpson and Robert Walker were pleased with the effort but both were also sure better things are to come.

“We had a very good meet, but we can perform better,” observed Simpson, the veteran girls’ coach. “The girls are working hard but we need better practices and better performances in meets.”

Walker echoed these sentiments adding, “We were missing several athletes due to illness and spring break. If they would have been here and performed as usual we would have won easily.”

The next two events on the schedule both occur during spring break. The Bryan Station All Comers is Wednesday afternoon and the Donnie Carnes Invitational at Campbell County is scheduled for Saturday, April 14.

Farmers Market to open April 21

By GARY CARTER, Co. EXT. AGENT

The Harrison County Farmers Market has scheduled the opening date for April 21. In a mailer last week, I had mentioned the date of April 28 as the starting date. This was an incorrect start date and I wanted to correct this for the general public.

On Saturday, April 21, the group hopes to have some cole crops, onions, lettuce and some plants for sale. We will also have some locally made crafts which will be offered.

Again, the market will have producers from Harrison, Roberson, Bourbon, Nicholas and Pendleton counties.

If you are interested in growing and selling produce at the market contact the Harrison County Extension Office at 234-5510 and receive the details about joining the Harrison County Farmers Market for 2012.

CRP sign-up deadline extended to April 13

The USDA Farm Service Agency announces that the sign-up deadline for the Conservation Reserve Program (CRP) has been extended to April 13.

After the CRP general sign-up ends on April 13, FSA will evaluate offers based on cost and the Environmental Benefits Index (EBI) takes into consideration variables such as wildlife habitat, water quality protection, soil erosion reduction, air quality protection and other enduring benefits. Accepted offers will become effective Oct. 1, 2012.

Producers with expiring contracts and producers with environmentally sensitive land are encouraged to evaluate their options under CRP.

Producers are urged to contact their local FSA service center or visit FSA's website at fsa.usda.gov for additional information regarding CRP.

Cedar rusts and fire blight concerns

By GARY CARTER, Co. EXT. AGENT

Warmer-than-normal conditions this spring are causing a few concerns for apple growers. The biggest threats right now are cedar rusts and fire blight. Cedar rust galls are developing. As galls swell, they produce spores that threaten apple (and sometimes crabapple and hawthorn). Swelling galls were observed on cedar in Lexington in mid-March. Warmer temperatures in Western Kentucky provided conditions for even earlier gall development.

These galls indicate that rust pathogens are releasing or preparing to release infective spores. Growers should protect trees with fungicides. Once diseases symptoms develop on apple, it is often too late for control. Three types of cedar rusts affect Kentucky apples:

- Cedar-apple rust produces large brown galls on cedar and other species of Juniperus. Soon after a rain, galls produce slimy yellow or orange "horns" that are made up of infective spores (basidiospores). These spores immediately infect apples, causing yellowish leaf spots with red rings (called halos). Leaf yellowing and leaf drop follow. Infected fruit develop large spots near the calyx end. These fruit are often stunted and may prematurely drop.

- Cedar-quince rust produces orange swellings on twigs. Spores produced in these slimy lesions affect apple fruit, but not leaves. Infection of blooms and young fruit occurs early in the season, but symptoms do not develop until fruit mature. Diseased fruit are puckered and have spongy lesions at the calyx end.

- Cedar-hawthorn rust forms galls similar to cedar-apple rust, only smaller. Spores produced from short "horns" infect apple, crabapple and hawthorn. Leaf spots on apple appear similar to those caused by apple cedar rust, and can cause defoliation. Fruit infection is not common.

Growers should use fungicides to prevent rust pathogens from infecting apples. After symptoms develop on apples, they are often too late for control. As to fire blight, primary infections occur through blossoms, so it is critical to manage the disease before and during bloom. It is too late to spray after bloom. The disease is most prolific when conditions are warm and rainy at bloom. Our current conditions are an indication that fire blight may be severe this spring.

All growers should be utilizing UK's Cougarblight predictive system. It is extremely easy to use, first visit http://www.wag-wx.ca.uky.edu/plant_disease.html. Next, click "Fire Blight" on the left side of the screen. Choose the weather station that is closest to the orchard by clicking the arrow under "Station" in the center of the screen. There are a few options below, such as the history of fire blight in the orchard. Finally, click "Submit Choices." The next screen will describe the risk of infection in the orchard.

Fire blight control measures include antibacterial pesticides applied during bloom. Applications made after bloom are ineffective. When fire blight risk is high (warm temperatures combined with rain) during bloom or if fire blight was a problem last year, the following spray schedule should be followed:

- Apply fixed copper at silver tip. Do not use copper fungicides after bud break.

- Apply streptomycin beginning at pink stage, repeating every four-five days, through petal fall. At least two applications are required, but you may apply up to four sprays, depending on rain and temperature conditions. Pay extra attention to susceptible varieties (i.e. Gala, Jonathan and Rome). Utilize Cougarblight or Maryblight predictive systems for assistance. Mycoshield (oxytetracycline) is also available for management of fire blight but is not as effective as streptomycin.

Refer to the Midwest Tree Fruit Spray Guide ID-92 for spray recommendations or our UK Disease blog at <http://nicolewarduk.blogspot.com/> for more information on fire blight.
